

Grading a Wikis

After you have created a Wikis and students have participated, you'll need to grade the Wikis. You can grade Wikis if you've set up the grading options when you created the Wikis. If you did not do that, you can also set-up the grading options by editing the Wikis properties.

Follow these step-by-step instructions to access and grade Wikis in your course:

1. Click Course Tools in the Control Panel and select Wiki.

2. Click the name of the Wiki you want to grade.

3. Click on Participation and Grading.

4. View the Participation Summary.

Name	Words Modified (Number Count)	Words Modified (Percentage)	Page Saves (Number Count)	Page Saves (Percentage)
Carissa Byers	10	15%	1	25%
Danielle Budzick	19	30%	1	25%
Stanton Merrit	21	33%	1	25%
Ulysses Garza	13	20%	1	25%

Displaying 1 to 4 of 4 items | Show All Edit Paging...

About This Wiki

Wiki Name: Group Project - Study Guide
 Type: Course
 Creation Date: 1/8/11 1:39 PM
 Pages: 1
 Comments: 0

View Contributions By:

Show All Members

All

Carissa Byers

Danielle Budzick

Stanton Merrit

Ulysses Garza

5. A green [!] near indicates entries which need grading. Click the student's name.

View Contributions By:

Show All Members

All

Carissa Byers

Danielle Budzick

Stanton Merrit

Ulysses Garza

6. Click Edit Grade in the sidebar to grade the student's contribution.

Grade

Edit Grade

Grade for: Carissa Byers
 Grade: -- out of 100.0
 Grade Date: --
 Feedback: --

7. Enter the student's grade in the Current Grade Value box, and provide any feedback you have. Grading Notes will only be visible to the Instructor. When you have finished grading, click Save Grade.

8. The updated grade now appears in the Grade section of the sidebar and the Full Grade Center.

